

Dr K. Bhaskar (Rtd.) M.Sc., Ph.D
Professor of Inorganic Chemistry
Email Id: kuthati18@gmail.com

Prof. K. Bhaskar obtained his M.Sc. (1988) and Ph.D. (1996) from Kakatiya University. He is a recipient of UGC–JRF awardee from UGC–New Delhi, India. He joined as faculty in Department of Chemistry, Osmania University in the year 1997, posted at O.U. P.G. College Bhiknur, and rendered his services up to the year 2010. There he discharged his duties as Principal of O.U. P.G. College Bhiknur for a period of 6 years. Later he had been posted at P.G. College Secunderabad, Nizam College and subsequently transferred to University College of Science, Osmania University. He is having 24 years of teaching experience and 30 years of research experience. His specialization being Inorganic chemistry, main area of research interest includes synthesis, characterization of metal complexes their biological studies. He had published 30 research publications in international and national peer viewed journals. He has also presented research papers in various National and International conferences. Under his supervision, 8 P.G. and 4 Ph.D. students have completed their dissertation work and 6 scholars are currently working for their Ph.D. He carried successfully a research project towards the “Environmental aspects of polluted lakes and their remedial measures” funded by UGC-New Delhi. He is a life member of Indian Science Congress Association. In addition to his academic and research work, he is also involved in administrative duties like Principal O.U. P.G. College Bhiknur, In charge Head, Department of Chemistry Nizam College, Chairperson, BoS, and Head, Department of Chemistry, OU and also Joint Director, PGRRCDE, Osmania University. He also member of selection committee in Indian Institute of Chemical Technology (IICT), Tarnaka, Hyderabad.