

Dr. M. Rama Rao
Professor

He has specialized in International Law. He stood First in LL.M. Course. Practiced as an Advocate for (5) years in High Court and A.P. Administrative Tribunal. He worked as Section Officer (Gazetted) for (8) years in A.P. Administrative Tribunal and joined as Part-time Lecturer in P.G.College of Law in the year 1988 and continued as such till his selection as full time Lecturer in February, 1992.

He taught various under-graduates (LL.B.) and P.G. Courses. He has done Ph.D. on “Indian State Practice Relating to Sovereign Immunity with special reference to India”. He worked as NSS Programme Officer for (4) years. He was also a Member of Faculty of Law for (2) years and at present he is a Member of Board of Studies.

He has participated in various National Seminars. He has also given Lectures as Resource person for the courses conducted by the Department of Law and Hyderabad Central University (HCU) and currently teaching International Law and Socio-Economic Offences at LL.M. level. He worked as Principal from August 2007 to August 2011.