About Osmania University:

Osmania University is a public state university located in Hyderabad, India, founded in 1918 with the help of chief Architect of Mahbub Ali Khan - Nawab Sarwar Jung. It was established and named after the seventh and last Nizam of Hyderabad, Nawab Mir Osman Ali Khan. The propitious moment came on 26th April, 1917 when a Firman was issued for the establishment of the University. It is the third oldest university in southern India, and the first to be established in the erstwhile princely State of Hyderabad. The university was established to cater to modern, secular, cultural, Islamic and regional arts education, for which the medium of instruction was selected as Urdu and English as a compulsory language, making it the first university in the Indian subcontinent to provide education in native and Urdu language. The Department of Physical Education, Osmania University, Hyderabad under RUSA 2.0 is conducting the International Conference on Enhancing Skills in Physical Education, and Sports Science from 20th to 22nd March 2020 at Osmania University, Hyderabad. ## About Hyderabad

Hyderabad is the capital and largest city of the southern Indian state Part of Telangana Region. That legacy is also evident in the city's distinctive cuisine, which includes Hyderabadi briyani and Hyderabadi haleem. The Qutub Shahis and Nizams established Hyderabad as a cultural hub, attracting men of letters from different parts of the world. Hyderabad emerged as the foremost centre of culture in India with the decline of the Mughal Empire in the mid-19th century, with artists migrating to the city from the rest of the Indian subcontinent. Hyderabad was historically known as a pearl and diamond trading centre, and it continues to be known as the City of Pearls. Many of the city's traditional bazaars, including Laad Bazaar, Begum Bazaar and Sultan Bazaar, have remained open for centuries. Hyderabad is also a Technology City of India.
