Guidelines for conducting Elocution Competition in the colleges.

General Guidelines:

- ❖ Each University is required to conduct the competition in its campus as well as in all the colleges affiliated to it on a date as per their convenience.
- ❖ All the participants must register themselves at our website www.killthecancer.in without fail. Participants who have not registered on our website will not be awarded participation certificate and will not be considered for semi-final and final competition.
- ❖ All the registered students who will participate in competition will be awarded with participation certificates duly signed, by ISKCON - Kukatpally.
- ❖ Any number of students can participate. There is no registration fee or any other kind of charges.
- ❖ It is recommended to conduct the Elocution Competition in the presence of fellow students as it will not only create more awareness but also be very effective in creating long lasting impression in the minds of all the participants.
- ❖ College management will be responsible for selecting winner of the competition. ISKCON will not be involved in any selection process at the college level. ISKCON - Kukatpally centre will send its representative to facilitate the program if college management wishes.
- ❖ Each college will select the best speaker after conducting the Elocution Competition by appointing a panel of three judges. The student who thus stands first from each college will be awarded with a trophy and will be eligible to participate in the Semi-finals.
- ❖ College management is requested to take pictures and videos of the program and send us by mail. ISKCON - Kukatpally may edit and publish these pictures and videos on their site.
- ❖ The dates and venue of the semi-finals and finals for each University will be informed by ISKCON - Kukatpally in due course of time.
