

Professor T Anuradha
Chairperson Board of Studies
Department of Geography,
Osmania University College of Science
Hyderabad, India

She is an accomplished Geography professional with extensive experience in teaching and research. She holds an M.A, M.Phil, and Ph.D. in Geography, specializing in Agricultural Geography and also qualified SLET (State Level Eligibility Test). Over a span of 17 years, she has taught various Geography subjects at both graduate and post-graduate levels at Osmania University. She is a Chairperson Board of Studies in her department. She has also taught subjects such as Geomorphology, Climatology, Economic Geography, Human Geography, and Regional Geography. She has published approximately 22 papers and authored a textbook for BA/BSC Regional Geography of Andhra Pradesh published by Telugu Academy and contributed few chapters in books published by BR Ambedkar University and also Telugu Academy. Additionally, she has contributed chapters in edited books (Springer Nature Series). She has attended numerous national and international conferences and presented papers. She has also played key roles in organizing conferences and serving as an Evaluation team member. She has completed three minor projects under UGC SAP and one under UGC CAS. A member of esteemed professional bodies like NAGI, INCA, IGS, ISC, DGSI, and UGIT, she also serves as a Coordinating Officer in the College Development Council.