

Dr. V. Vanita Das, M.Sc., Ph.D.
Professor

Area of Research: Helminthology Joined the University in the year 1989. She worked on the histochemical and biochemical aspects of Singhiatrema longifurca (Trematoda) and Kiricephalus pattoni juvenile. She has held different positions in both Academic and Administration in the University and also served as the Head, Department of Zoology, Nizam College in 2011-13. She has been the convenor for several seminar organized. Presently guiding scholars on the aspects of helminth parasites and nematode diversity, two have submitted their thesis and one awarded Ph.D. Has published research papers in International and National journals. She has been the co-ordinator for the Text book development committee in Board of Intermediate Education AP, editor for practical manual Board of Intermediate. Editor for Text book of Zoology for B.Sc. Semester - I CBCS syllabus.